Product availability codes

The product availability codes indicate the location in which the product will ship from and, if its not in stock, the number of business days needed to assemble the product from receipt of order to shipment from the ABB location. This lead time does not include transit time from the ABB facility to the end destination.

A Stock items - Shipped within 1 working day. Above the listed qty shipped in 8 working days

B Assembled to order - Shipped within 8 working day after receipt of order in system.

Quantities

*Quantity indicates the maximum quantity that can be ordered to receive by the listed shipped times.

Information in this guide is subject to change without notice. For the most current information check with Customer Service.
